

RULES OF THE COMPANY TMR a.s. FOR ALPINE SKI TOURERS MOVING ON SKI SLOPES AND TRAILS

1. Alpine ski touring (ascents and descents) shall be at the skier's own risk and responsibility. Each ski tourer takes full responsibility for his / her action, when entering inaccessible terrain without authorization, disrespecting closed areas, violating resort's opening hours and the NAPANT's visiting rules, and instructions of the Mountain Rescue Service (MRS).
2. Alpine ski tours shall be made along demarked corridors for alpine ski touring within the resort, and designated alpine ski touring zones in terms of NAPANT's visiting rules. Alpine ski tourers shall pay attention to the traffic on slopes to avoid endangering or hurting himself / herself and others.
3. Pay special attention to peaks, tight places, steep places, icy terrain, when crossing a ski slope. Do not cross places with limited visibility.
4. Speed of ascent and descent shall be adapted to skier's skills, snow conditions, weather conditions, terrain, and frequency on slopes.
5. Entry to alpine ski touring terrain, ski trails and ski routes is prohibited before and after operating times of transport facilities – there is a risk of injury due to snow gun cables and grooming machines, in particular those with winch rope! There is a risk of death!
6. Pay attention to the mountain surroundings, particularly avalanche danger and do not make alpine ski tours if avalanche activity is expected. We recommend checking avalanche conditions before setting out on a trail.
7. Alpine ski touring is only possible if there is enough stable snow to avoid damage to plants and soil.
8. It is important to have regard to wild animals, since they are disturbed.
9. Dogs are not allowed to the slopes, ski trails and ski routes.
10. Alpine ski touring trails run through the NAPANT national park, therefore all visitors to the area shall follow the NAPANT's visiting rules and instructions of the Mountain Rescue Service (MRS).
11. Each skier moving across ski slopes is obliged to observe the White Code of the mountain resort of Jasná Nízke Tatry, which is published on www.jasna.sk.
12. By using the designated alpine ski touring area, each ski tourer undertakes to comply with the rules and guidelines of an authorized employee. In the case of any violation of these rules, the authorized employee is eligible to instruct participants of alpine ski tours and call for the observance of the rules. In the case of any serious, persistent or repeated violations, the authorized employee is entitled to restrict such ski tourers to access the designated alpine ski touring area.
